FORTINA Honored With a "Best of Year 2015" Award by American Magazine *INTERIOR DESIGN

FORTINA, our interior and exterior aluminum designing product, was named a Best of Year 2015 honoree in the Combination of Dissimilar Materials category. Sponsored by the world-famous American architecture and interior magazine INTERIOR DESIGN, the award recognizes superior products, materials and projects every year.

FORTINA made its first appearance in the US market in 2015. The winning of this award is an affirmation by the US market of FORTINA's superior design and its concept, "opening up design potential by printing technology".
